

INTRODUCTION TO YOUR STRONG INTERPRETIVE REPORT

You recently took the Strong Interest Inventory® assessment, the most widely used measure of career interests in the world. The purpose of this report is to help you understand the information presented in your Strong Profile and use it to explore your career options.

Your Strong results reflect your interests. You are likely to be the most satisfied and productive with career and educational choices that incorporate what you like to do. Your career professional can help you consider your interests, along with your skills and values, to find rewarding career, educational, and leisure options.

The Strong compares your answers to those of thousands of people in the general workforce and to the interests of satisfied workers in 120 occupations. This report summarizes your general interest patterns and your similarity to workers in various career fields and jobs. Your general interest patterns point to potentially satisfying work environments; your similarity to workers suggests potentially satisfying work tasks and specific careers.

Your results are organized around six major occupational themes that describe people and the environments in which they work. These occupational themes are listed in the Six Occupational Themes box to your right.

YOUR STRONG INTERPRETIVE REPORT INCLUDES PERSONALIZED INFORMATION ON

- Your general interests (General Occupational Themes)
- Specific activities you might like to do at work and in your leisure time (Basic Interest Scales)
- Occupations suggested by your interests (Occupational Scales)
- Your preferred styles of working and learning (Personal Style Scales)

SIX OCCUPATIONAL THEMES

- Realistic—the doers
- Investigative—the thinkers
- Artistic—the creators
- Social—the helpers
- Enterprising—the persuaders
- Conventional—the organizers

YOU CAN USE THIS INFORMATION TO HELP YOU

- Choose a career field or specific job
- Explore educational options
- Identify potentially satisfying work environments
- Enrich your current work
- Generate ideas for volunteer and leisure activities

As you read this report, always keep in mind that the Strong is an inventory of your interests. It is not a test of your abilities. If you need clarification of your results, be sure to talk them over with your career professional.

YOUR GENERAL OCCUPATIONAL THEMES

Your report begins with your results on the six General Occupational Themes. The chart below expands on the information presented on your Profile to include definitions of the Themes on which you scored highest, as well as career fields, personal descriptors, and leisure activities typically associated with those Themes. The Themes describe broad patterns of interest and can be used to help you identify satisfying work environments, the kinds of people you might enjoy working with, and what motivates you the most at work. Keep in mind that because the Themes are very broad, the descriptors may not fit you exactly. Your Theme code is AIS.

YOUR THEME DESCRIPTIONS

THEME	CODE	DEFINITION	CAREER FIELDS	PERSONAL DESCRIPTORS	LEISURE ACTIVITIES
Artistic	A	Creating or enjoying art, drama, music, writing	Writing Entertainment Commercial or fine arts Music	Creative, expressive, independent, imaginative, original	Collecting artwork, attending plays or concerts, visiting museums, painting, playing music

A CLOSER LOOK AT YOUR GENERAL OCCUPATIONAL THEMES

Most people's interests combine more than one Theme, which define their career motivators. The top Themes of your three-letter Theme code are Artistic and Investigative. These Themes are the ones we will focus on in this section.

Your Artistic and Investigative Themes suggest career fields that might interest you the most and are your strongest career motivators—what will most excite you in your work. Examples of career fields for your highest Themes are highlighted below. Of course, you are not limited to these career fields. They are only a starting point for your exploration process.

SELECTED CAREER FIELDS

- Technical writing
- Medical illustration
- Psychology
- Urban planning
- Law
- Editing

ACTION STEP

Note any career fields in the list above that appeal to you.

Although your Themes have some characteristics, each one has unique career motivators—what will stimulate you to achieve in your career.

YOUR CAREER MOTIVATORS

YOUR HIGHEST THEMES	STRONGEST CAREER MOTIVATOR	MOTIVATOR COMBINATIONS
Artistic	Expressing creativity	AI Expressing your creativity in abstract, analytical, and independent ways
Investigative	Analyzing	IA Analyzing theories and ideas intuitively and creatively

ACTION STEPS

1. Consider your career motivators. How might they determine the kind of work environment that would be attractive to you or the kind of work you would like to do? How have they been present in your life up to this point?
2. Consider other potential careers that seem to combine expressing creativity and analyzing.

The next section of your report begins to narrow down these broad Theme categories into more specific interests.

YOUR BASIC INTERESTS

Now that you have considered your interests at the most general level, it is time to focus on specific areas of activity—things you might like to do. There are 30 Basic Interest Scales on the Strong.

The Basic Interest Scales in which you show the most interest are listed below. Notice that each Basic Interest is related to a particular Theme.

YOUR TOP STRONG INTEREST AREAS

BASIC INTEREST SCALE	THEME	TYPICAL INTERESTS AND ACTIVITIES
Writing & Mass Communication	Artistic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Writing articles and stories</li> <li>• Television announcing</li> <li>• Literature</li> </ul>
Performing Arts	Artistic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Acting in a play</li> <li>• Teaching music or drama</li> <li>• Attending concerts and plays</li> </ul>
Visual Arts & Design	Artistic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Photography</li> <li>• Designing public relations materials</li> <li>• Designing architectural structures</li> </ul>
Culinary Arts	Artistic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Preparing dinner for guests</li> <li>• Trying new recipes</li> <li>• Catering</li> </ul>
Law	Enterprising	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Arguing legal issues</li> <li>• Preparing for trial</li> <li>• Studying law</li> </ul>

ACTION STEPS

1. Look over the interest areas above. How are they present in your life now? Do they represent your current work, school, or leisure interests? Do the activities you like cluster in the same Themes as your general interests? If they do, your interests are probably fairly focused. Try to make sure your work matches these interests. If your interest areas do not cluster, your interests may be more diverse. Think about ways you might incorporate some of them into your work and others into your leisure time.
2. Look at page 3 of your Profile. In what areas do you have the least interest? Try to avoid these areas in your work. If you do have to work in areas that are not particularly interesting to you, try to engage your top interests in your leisure time.

YOUR SIMILARITY TO OCCUPATIONS

The Occupational Scales section of the Strong focuses your work interests even further. It shows the occupations in which your likes and dislikes were most similar to those of the people who work in them and are satisfied with their jobs. Listed below are the occupations for which your likes and dislikes were the most similar.

You would probably enjoy the day-to-day work of these and other occupations that share the same Themes. These are just a few of the occupations that might interest you. Ask your career professional to show you how to use the Theme codes provided to expand your list.

NEXT STEPS

As is true for many people, your General Occupational Themes, Basic Interests, and Occupations have some characteristics in common, but they do not all reflect the same Themes. This may mean that you have a variety of interests in work, leisure activities, and school subjects. Use any of the Themes in your report in your exploration. Some of your diverse interests may be expressed in a job that provides a lot of variety, or they may be reflected in a balance in your life between work and leisure activities.

ACTION STEPS

1. Using the summary chart on the preceding page or any of the descriptors you highlighted in this report or on your Strong Profile, create a master list of all descriptors that either describe you or appeal to you. Take this list with you to any informational or job interviews you attend. During the interview, ask questions to determine whether there are opportunities to express these interests or engage in these activities and try to determine whether there is a good fit between your interests and the job you are considering. For example, if you highlighted Creative, flexible, self-expressive, ask about opportunities to express this interest.
2. Your Strong results can also help you during your career exploration. Your Artistic Theme score suggests that the career planning process may at times seem too goal directed and structured, requiring you to be more practical than you like to be. To keep yourself motivated:
  - Try some creative ways to research occupations—collect pictures from magazines and create a collage of work-related activities that interest you or write down some of your career fantasies and talk them over with a friend
  - Check out occupational videotapes from the library
  - Visit some classes before you enroll in a career-related educational program to make sure the training is interesting and fits your learning style
  - Ask a close friend to keep you on target with your decision making so you don't go off in too many directions at once
